

May 2021

Summarized Report of Results of Trial

First Judicial Circuit

On 06 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, PV2 Kyle Reed, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, contrary to his pleas, of two specifications of assault consummated by a battery, one specification of battery upon a spouse, and one specification of extramarital sexual conduct in violation of Articles 128 and 134, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of sexual assault, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, one specification of extramarital sexual conduct, and one specification of adultery in violation of Articles 120, 128, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be restricted to Fort Campbell, Kentucky for 30 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge.

On 11 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Knox, Kentucky, SPC Corey E. Krichbaum, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his plea, of one specification of domestic violence in violation of Article 128b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 8 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 12 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, PFC Giovanni M. Maysonetdiaz, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, contrary to his pleas, of two specifications of abusive sexual contact and one specification of sexual assault in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 18 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 15 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, PV2 Sergio Salcedo, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his plea, of one specification of willfully disobeying a lawful order of a superior commissioned officer in violation of Article 90, UCMJ. Contrary to his pleas, the accused was convicted by a military judge of one specification of attempted rape of a child, one specification of willfully disobeying a lawful order of a superior commissioned officer, four specifications of rape of a child, and one specification of sexual abuse of a child in violation of Articles 80, 90, and 120b, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of committing a lewd act upon a child, one specification of assault consummated by a battery upon a child, one specification of obstruction of justice, and one specification of prevention of authorized seizure of property in violation of Articles 120b, 128, 131b, and 131e, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 25 years and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 18 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Drum, New York, SSG Wesley Revels, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of domestic violence in violation of Article 128b, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of simple assault, one specification of aggravated assault, and one specification of obstructing justice, in violation of Articles 128 and 131b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to confined for 100 days. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 18 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, SPC Austin Morgan, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of destruction of nonmilitary personal property, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, one specification of sexual abuse of a child involving sexual contact, one specification of sexual abuse of a child involving indecent exposure, one specification of sexual abuse of a child involving indecent communication, one specification of sexual assault of a child, and one specification of possession of child pornography in violation of Articles 109, 128, 120b, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 36 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of the plea agreement.

On 18 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Lee, Virginia, SFC Blake C. Wilson, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of violating a general order, two specifications of prohibited activities with a trainee by a person in a position of special trust, one specification of obstructing justice, and one specification of extramarital sexual conduct in violation of Articles 92, 93a, 131b, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-4, to be confined for 100 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 19 May 2021, at a general court martial convened at Fort Drum, New York, SPC Corey Harris, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of communicating a threat, one specification of wrongful broadcast or distribution of intimate visual images, and one specification of possession of child pornography in violation of Articles 115, 117a, and 134, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of extortion and one specification of distribution of child pornography in violation of Articles 127 and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 26 months and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 19 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, SFC Kyron Oram, United States Army, was convicted, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of willful damage of military property, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, and three specifications of drunk and disorderly conduct in violation of Articles 108, 128, and 134, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of five specifications of failure to obey an order by a member of the armed forces police and one specification of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Articles 92 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-6 and to be confined for 7 days.

On 20 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Drum, New York, PFC Rashad Henry, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of absence without leave in violation of Article 86, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 15 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 21 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, SGT Matthew J. Newberry, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his plea, of one specification of attempted sexual abuse of a child involving indecent communication in violation of Article 80, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 90 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 26 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, SPC Christian Grillo, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of making false official statements, one specification of abusive sexual contact, and three specifications of sexual assault in violation of Articles 107 and 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 25 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of the plea agreement.

On 27 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at West Point, New York, a Cadet, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer members of two specifications of sexual assault by bodily harm, one specification of rape by unlawful force, one specification of communicating a threat, and one specification of assault in violation of Articles 120, 134 and 128, UCMJ.

On 30 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Camp Arifjan, Kuwait, SPC Tashawn A. Ross, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of violation of a general order, and one specification of a lesser included offense of assault consummated by battery in violation of Articles 92 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 70 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. A pretrial agreement had no effect on the sentence.

Second Judicial Circuit

On 3 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Stewart, Georgia, SFC Derrick Hurts, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of attempted indecent visual recording, two specifications of indecent visual recording, and one specification of patronizing a prostitute in violation of Articles 80, 120c, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 12 months, and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 06 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, SFC Steven Zakar, United States Army, pled guilty to three specifications of disobeying a lawful general order in violation of Article 92, UCMJ. Contrary to his plea, SFC Zakar was found guilty of one specification of willfully disobeying a lawful order in violation of Article 92, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of one specification of making an official false statement, one specification of sexual assault, and one specification of obstructing justice in violation of Articles 107, 120, and 131b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-5.

On 07 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, 1LT Kristian R. Pfeffer, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of disobeying a superior commissioned officer, one specification of making a false official statement, one specification of obstructing justice, and one specification of extramarital sexual conduct in violation of Articles 90, 107, 131b, and 134, UCMJ. Contrary to his pleas, the accused was convicted by a military panel composed of officer members of one specification of sexual assault and three specifications of assault consummated by a battery of an intimate partner in violation of Articles 120 and 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of three specifications of assault in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 24 months and 28 days and to be dismissed from the service.

On 11 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, SPC Ethan S. Pugh, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his plea, of assault consummated by battery in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 90 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. A pretrial agreement had no effect on the sentence.

On 13 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Stewart, Georgia, SSG Michael L. Wilson, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of three specifications of rape of a child, three specifications of sexual abuse of a child, and one specification of sexual assault of a child in violation of Article 120b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1; to be confined consecutively for life with the eligibility of parole, life with the eligibility of parole, and 20 years, and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 19 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, SPC Marcus R. Sloan, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of damaging private property of a value of less than $1,000 and one specification of assault consummated by a battery upon an intimate partner in violation of Articles 109 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 20 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, CPL Landon D. Teschendorf, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of wrongfully receiving child pornography, one specification of wrongfully possessing child pornography, and one specification of wrongfully viewing child pornography in violation of Article 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 12 months and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 21 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Benning, Georgia, SSG Cory M. Garrett, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officers and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of communicating a threat, one specification of aggravated assault inflicting substantial bodily harm, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, and of one specification of aggravated assault with a firearm in violation of Articles 115 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 4 years, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge.

On 25 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Benning, Georgia, SPC Tyler J. Dierich, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of assault consummated by a battery, three specifications of distribution of child pornography, one specification of possession of child pornography, one specification of production of child pornography, and one specification of animal abuse in violation of Articles 128 and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 15 years, and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 26 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, SSG Adam Bezak, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of Article 92, failure to obey a lawful regulation, and one specification of Article 107, false official statement. The accused was acquitted of one specification of obstruction of justice, and one specification of conduct that was prejudice of good order and discipline in the armed forces in violation of Articles 131b and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-5, to forfeit $1,185 pay per month for three months, and to be confined for 14 days on Charge I and 7 days on Charge II, to run concurrently. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

Third Judicial Circuit

On 3 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, PV2 Kentez G. Harvey, United States Army, was convicted by military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of conspiracy to distribute marijuana and launder money, one specification of making a false official statement, one specification of distribution of marijuana, and five specifications of use of marijuana in violation of Articles 81, 107, and 112a, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit $1333 pay per month for 11 months, to be confined for 338 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad conduct discharge.

On 04 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Riley, Kansas, SPC Jamin Roscoe, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of wrongful use of a schedule II controlled substance, two specifications of wrongful use of marijuana, and one specification of distribution of a schedule I controlled substance in violation of Article 112a, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of attempted wrongful possession, one specification of disobeying a superior commissioned officer, two specifications of wrongful use of a schedule II controlled substance, two specifications of wrongful use of marijuana, one specification of wrongful possession of a schedule I controlled substance, one specification of wrongful distribution of a schedule I controlled substance, two specifications of assault, and one specification of drunk and disorderly conduct, in violation of Articles 80, 90, 112a, 128, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit all pay and allowances, to be confined for 15 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 05 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Riley, Kansas, PFC Michael Camarada, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification violating a general order, one specification of wrongful use of a controlled substance, and one specification of distributing a controlled substance, in violation of Articles 92, and 112a, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of wrongfully possessing a controlled substance, in violation of Article 112a. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 6 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 5 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, a Private First Class, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members of two specifications of abusive sexual contact in violation of Article 120, UCMJ.

On 06 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Polk, Louisiana, a Sergeant, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members of one specification of battery upon a child under the age of 16 in violation of Article 128, UCMJ.

On 7 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, SPC Benjamin Vargas, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of false official statement and one specification of larceny in violation of Articles 107 and 121, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 30 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 12 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, SGT John Tellez, United States Army, was convicted, contrary to his pleas, of two specifications of abusive sexual contact and one specification of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Articles 120 and 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of communicating a threat, one specification of abusive sexual contact, and two specifications of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Articles 115, 120 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 13 months and 14 days, and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 18 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Polk, Louisiana, SGT Tommy M. Blanchard, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of four specifications of assault in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of attempted sexual contact in violation of Article 80, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 100 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 21 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, CPL Shjon Kern, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officers and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of rape and one specification of abusive sexual contact in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 46 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 21 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, SPC Timothy D. Green, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officer members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of rape and one specification of aggravated assault in violation of Articles 120 and 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of rape, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, and one specification of wrongfully communicating a threat, in violation of Articles 120, 128, and 134, UCMJ. The members sentenced the accused to forfeit all pay and allowances, to be confined for 8 years and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 22 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, CW3 Jason J. Geranen, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officers, contrary to his plea, of one specification of sexual assault in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 18 months and to be dismissed from the service.

On 25 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Riley, Kansas, SPC Cameron A. Heath, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of assault consummated by battery in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of sexual assault in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 40 days, and forfeit 2/3 pay per month for 2 months. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 26 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Polk, Louisiana, a Sergeant, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members of two specifications of sexual abuse of a child in violation of Article 120b, UCMJ.

On 26 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at JBSA Fort Sam Houston, Texas, SGT Erick Rand, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of communicating a threat, two specifications of aggravated assault, and one specification of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Articles 115 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced SGT Rand to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 14 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge.

On 27 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Hood, Texas, PVT Michael Holder, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas of one specification of making a false official statement and one specification of wrongful use of marijuana in violation of Articles 107 and 112a, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 100 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

Fourth Judicial Circuit

On 04 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Wainwright, Alaska, SPC Hector O. RamosNava, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 5 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 04 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Camp Humphreys, Korea, a Private First Class, United States Army, was acquitted by a military judge of two specifications of abusive sexual contact and one specification of assault with intent to commit sexual assault in violation of Articles 120 and 128, UCMJ.

On 05 May 2021, at a special Court-Martial convened at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, PFC Justyce E. Reese, United States Army, was convicted by a Military Judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of wrongful introduction of tetrahydrocannabinol, a schedule I controlled substance with intent to distribute, one specification of wrongful possession of tetrahydrocannabinol with intent to distribute, and one specification of wrongful distribution of tetrahydrocannabinol in violation of Article 112a, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, confinement for 5 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge.

On 6 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, SFC Richard G. Fields, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of soliciting the production of child pornography, one specification of soliciting the distribution of child pornography, two specifications of sexual abuse of a child by communicating indecent language, and one specification of sexual abuse of a child by engaging in indecent conduct, in violation of Articles 82 and 120b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 8 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 6 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Camp Humphreys, Korea, SPC Joshua A. McCraw, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of wrongful broadcast of intimate visual images in violation of Article 117a, Uniform Code of Military Justice. Consistent with the terms of a plea agreement, the accused was found not guilty of one specification of wrongful distribution of intimate visual images, three specifications of indecent recording or broadcasting, and one specification of aggravated assault in violation of Articles 117a, 120c, and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 65 days and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 6 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Carson, Colorado, SPC Jonathan Cone, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of attempted sexual abuse of a child, in violation of Article 80, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of attempted enticement of a child, in violation of Article 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reprimanded, to be reduced to the grade of E-3, and to be confined for 75 days.

On 07 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska, SGT Kyle A. Bode, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of being absent without leave, two specifications of larceny, and six specifications of fraud, in violation of Articles 86, 121, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit two-thirds pay for 7 months, to be confined for 200 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 7 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, PV2 Edwin Rosado, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of destruction of nonmilitary property and one specification of domestic violence in violation of Articles 109 and 128b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1 and to be confined for 35 days. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 10 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bliss, Texas, PFC Luis A. Morales-Sanchez, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of willfully disobeying a superior commissioned officer, one specification of making a false official statement, one specification of a wrongful use of a controlled substance, one specifications of simple assault, five specifications of assault consummated by a battery, one specification of aggravated assault, and one specification of extra-marital sexual conduct in violation of Articles 90, 107, 112a, 128, and 134 UCMJ. Contrary to his pleas, the accused was convicted of one specification of murder in violation of Article 118, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of two specifications of attempt to violate a lawful order, two specifications of disobeying a superior commissioned officer, one specification of unlawful possession of a controlled substance, one specification of wrongful discharge of a firearm, one specification of aggravated assault, one specification of stalking, and one specification of negligent discharge of a firearm in violation of Articles 80, 90, 112a, 114, 128, 130, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 40 years and 10 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 10 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Camp Humphreys, Republic of Korea, PFC Delvante K. Long, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of larceny, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, and one specification of disorderly conduct, in violation of Articles 121, 128, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for concurrently for 7 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. As part of an offer to plead guilty, a pretrial agreement limited confinement to 3 to 6 months for the violation of Article 128 UCMJ, 0 days for the violation of Article 134 UCMJ, and 3 to 12 months for the violation of Article 121, UCMJ.

On 12 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, PV2 John G. Cabassa, United States Army, was convicted, in accordance with his pleas, of one specification of resisting apprehension, and four specifications of failure to obey a lawful order in violation of Article 87a and 92, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of sexual assault in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The members sentenced the accused to be reprimanded, reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit $892.50 pay per month for 2 months, to perform 90 days of hard labor without confinement, and to serve 60 days restriction to Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

On 13 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, PVT Deontay K. Parham, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of conspiracy to wrongfully distribute marijuana and launder money, one specification of solicitation, one specification violating a lawful general order, one specification of possession of marijuana, one specification of conducting a financial transaction with the proceeds of an unlawful activity, one specification of using the mail to distribute marijuana, and one specification of carrying a firearm in the commission of a drug trafficking crime in violation of Articles 81, 82, 92, 112a, and 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to confinement for 26 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 14 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Carson, Colorado, PV2 John Navarro, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of sexual abuse of a child, in violation of Article 120b, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 10 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 14 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska, SPC Jourdon M. Penalver, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officers and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of assault by strangulation in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of committing indecent conduct, in violation of Article 134, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1 and to be confined for 75 days.

On 14 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Camp Humphreys, Republic of Korea, a Private First Class, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members of one specification of making a false official statement, and one specification of sexual assault in violation of Articles 107 and 120, UCMJ.

On 18 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Bliss, Texas, PFC Dakota L. Mason, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of fleeing apprehension, one specification of willfully disobeying a superior commissioned officer, one specification of unlawful distribution of cocaine, one specification of larceny, and one specification of assault consummated by a battery, in violation of Articles 87a, 90, 112a, 121, and 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of attempted larceny, one specification of conspiracy, two specifications of disobeying a superior commissioned officer, one specification of wrongful possession, and one specification of wrongful use in violation of Articles 80, 81, 90, and 112a, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 12 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. A pretrial agreement had no effect on the sentence.

On 19 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Fort Bliss, Texas, SPC Pablo A. Calderondelgado, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of wrongful possession, and one specification of use of a controlled substance in violation of Article 112a, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-3.

On 20 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, a Private, United States Army, was acquitted by a military panel composed of officer and enlisted members of one specification of sexual assault and two specifications of abusive sexual contact in violation of Article 120, UCMJ.

On 20 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, SPC Jackson K. Crawford, United States Army, was convicted by a military panel composed of officers and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of failure to obey a lawful order, and one specification of strangulation in violation of Articles 92 and 128, UCMJ. The accused was acquitted of one specification of rape by fear of grievous bodily harm, and four specifications of sexual assault by placing the victim in fear in violation of Articles 120 and 128, UCMJ. The members sentenced the accused to reduction to the grade of E-1 and to be confined for 120 days.

On 24 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Wheeler Army Airfield, Hawaii, SGT Cody Shackelford, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of giving a false official statement and one specification of unlawful entry in violation of Articles 107 and 129, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1 and to be confined for 6 months. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 25 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington, SGT Richard Z. Banzali, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of attempted wrongful disposition of military property, one specification of conspiracy to wrongfully dispose of military property, one specification of failure to obey a lawful general regulation, one specification of wrongful disposition of military property, and two specifications of larceny in violation of Articles 80, 81, 92, 108, and 121, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit all pay and allowances, and to be confined for 9 months. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 26 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Fort Bliss, Texas, a Chief Warrant Officer 2, United States Army, was acquitted by a military judge of four specifications of rape of a child and two specifications of assault consummated by a battery in violation of Articles 120, 120b, and 128, UCMJ.

On 27 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Wheeler Army Airfield, Hawaii, SPC Austin T. Evans, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his plea, of one specification of assault consummated by battery upon his spouse in violation of Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to forfeit $1,000 per month for five months, and to be confined for 140 days. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

Fifth Judicial Circuit

On 3 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Vilseck, Germany, SGT Henry G. Rojasdavila, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of attempt to commit indecent visual recording, in violation of Article 80, UCMJ. Pursuant to his pleas, of three specifications of indecent visual recording, in violation of Article 120c, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 18 months, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 12 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Vilseck, Germany, PVT Ulises E. Leon, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, contrary to his plea, of one specification of sexual assault in violation of Article 120, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 22 months and to be discharged from the service with a dishonorable discharge.

On 14 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Kleber Kaserne, Kaiserslautern, Germany, PVT Amir J. Smith, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of two specifications of damaging non-military property, one specification of aggravated assault, one specification of assault consummated by a battery, and one specification of simple assault in violation of Articles 109 and 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 30 months and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 14 May 2021, at a general court-martial convened at Vilseck, Germany, PFC Kyran N. Hulitt, United States Army, was convicted by a military judge, pursuant to his pleas, of one specification of communicating a threat, one specification of simple assault, and one specification of aggravated assault in violation of Articles 115 and Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be reduced to the grade of E-1, to be confined for 180 days, and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge. The sentence was consistent with the terms of a plea agreement.

On 19 May 2021, at a special court-martial convened at Vilseck Germany, PVT Timothy Fiorentino-Strawn, United States Army, was convicted by a panel composed of officer and enlisted members, contrary to his pleas, of one specification of assault on a noncommissioned officer and one specification of assault on a military police officer in violation of Article 91 and Article 128, UCMJ. The military judge sentenced the accused to be confined for 4 months and to be discharged from the service with a bad-conduct discharge.

----- END OF REPORT -----