Good morning Mrs. Barbee. As you know, I just consider myself lucky to be able to continue serve our country in uniform. Our parents taught us to give our best effort every day and just do what is right. That has kept me straight all these years. Thanks for thinking of me.

Very respectfully,
Abe Abrams

Gen. Abrams,

Abe, you are starring on Facebook today. Under your photo, this is what I saw:

Here is the Commanding General of US Army Forces Command. He is the man who decided today to charge Bowe Bergdahl with desertion. He did this knowing his career... will probably be over because of his decision. I imagine that President Obama is tonight plotting to ruin his reputation for upsetting his attempt to whitewash what Bergdahl did so he had an excuse to free the 6 al Quida prisoners from Gitmo.

Please share his picture with all the Patriots you know. Show General Abrams how much you support his courage. He reminds me of General Creighton Abrams former Army Chief of Staff and another American Hero.

His dad was 4 Star General Creighton Abrams.

Please pass this on to more AMERICANS to show our support of his courage.
Thanks.

This is my two cents.....

Sir, hope all is well at FORSCOM. I will be down to see you as soon as we can synch calendars to get your guidance on how IMCOM can better support the FORSCOM Senior Commanders, and I look forward to doing that.

On a separate topic, before I contacted you last month, I checked with Flora Darpino to ensure it was appropriate to discuss Bergdahl, and as you can see from her note below, there is nothing inappropriate in our discussing it at this point. So, my offer stands, and I am available to discuss it anytime if you so desire. My main concern is that my views and position on it have not been fairly represented in the media, and I would want you to benefit from an accurate understanding before exercising judgment on next steps.

I understand and respect that it is your call, and I believe the process has tremendous integrity. Very proud of that in fact. So I do not wish to influence, only to fully inform....v/r..KD

KD - I do not believe it is with GEN Abrams yet. I think it is still at the Special CM convening authority level. I will let GEN Abrams legal advisor (COL Berry) know you will like to discuss the case with him before he makes his decision. No issue with you discussing it with him if he wants to speak to you. Thanks - Flora

To know Gen. Abrams is to know a "ground bound Angel". I know he must have Angel wing buds on his shoulder blades. May he be forever Blessed. His Dad also knew my name.
