SUBJECT: Coat of Arms for the 427th Medical Battalion, U.S. Army Reserve

1. A coat of arms is authorized this date for the 427th Medical Battalion. The blazon and symbolism of the design is as follows:

BLAZON

SHIELD: Sanguine, between two rods of Aesculapius, pilewise a pheon point up Or garnished Gules.

CREST: That for the regiments and separate battalions of the Army Reserve: From a wreath Or and Sanguine, the Lexington Minute Man Proper.

MOTTO: SUPPLY EXCELLENCE ALWAYS.

SYMBOLISM

CREST: Maroon is the primary color traditionally associated with the Medical Corps. The rods of Aesculapius represent medical care and highlight the two World Wars in which the unit served. The pheon signifies the fields of combat; the red collar highlights the unit's Meritorious Unit Commendations. Gold stands for excellence and honor.

CREST: The crest is the crest of the U.S. Army Reserve.

2. This authorization is in accordance with paragraph 5-60, AR 840-10 and Permanent Orders F-11-4, U.S. Army Reserve Command, 5 November 1993. This authorization letter will become a part of the permanent files of the organization in accordance with File No. 840-10a, AR 25-400-2.
