SUBJECT: Coat of Arms for 917th Support Battalion, United States Army Reserve

1. A coat of arms is authorized effective 16 September 2013, for the 917th Support Battalion. The blazon and symbolism of the design are as follows:

BLAZON

SHIELD: Per pale Gules and Azure, a pile Argent throughout edged solid and terminating in serifs as the Roman numeral V, within the pile, four mullets in fusil Or; all within a bordure of the last.

CREST: That for the regiments and separate battalions of the Army Reserve: From a wreath Argent and Gules, the Lexington Minute Man Proper. The statue of the Minute Man, Captain John Parker (H.H. Kitson, sculptor), stands on the common in Lexington, Massachusetts.

MOTTO: SIMUL IN VICTORIA (Together In Victory).

SYMBOLISM

SHIELD: The field is red, white and blue, echoing the national colors of the United States. It is divided in a way to evoke the Army Materiel Command emblem, based on the mission support relationship. The red is a traditional color for support units while white symbolizes contracting and planning and blue stands for commercial support for deployed units worldwide. The stars are organized in a diamond cluster which elicits excellence while holding the four cardinal points of the compass: North, South, East and West. All the elements convey the versatility of the Battalion's worldwide mission. The gold heraldic pile shaped into a Roman V historically means victory and amplifies the unit's motto "Simul In Victoria" which translates to "Together in Victory."

CREST: The crest is that of the United States Army Reserve.
